

Despite all my days, I'm still just a rat in a maze.

The Blood Drive at the end of the Hallway

Saturday, November 29, 2025

10:00 am to 4:00 pm in the Carmel Room

Lose yourself in altruism – or at least in the LAX Hilton. But if you can find your way through this maze to the American Red Cross, you can donate a pint, help up to three people and celebrate with all the Cheese-Its you can eat. Only the smartest rats will succeed and be entered to win one of two memberships to next year's Loscon.

You can sign up ahead of time for your appointment here: TBA
And don't forget to use RAPIDPASS the day of your donation (zip code 90045): <https://www.redcrossblood.org/donate-blood/manage-my-donations/rapidpass.html>

so you will have more time to find your way out of the maze.
