

For thirty-four years the American Red Cross blood drive has been a staple of Loscon. Many have donated. Why? Well, that's up to each individual. How? Skilled nurses and the dedicated volunteers that organize and run the drive. How much? Hundreds of gallons over the years. Last year, Loscon 51 reached its goal of 25 units. But Loscon 52? Could this be the blood drive that goes...

Blood Drive

9:00am to 3:00pm in the Carmel Room

If you find yourself wondering the hallways of the LAX Hilton, an hour before the first panel when you wouldn't miss anything, you might find yourself in a room where strange things occur. People lose blood happily, then celebrate with drinks and snacks. And if you join them, you might win one of two free memberships to Loscon 53. You might even walk away with a clairvoyant air fish that can tell you the future*.
